

Greater Toronto Hockey League

Herb Ebisuzaki Coaching Award

About the Award

Established in 2005, the Herb Ebisuzaki Coaching Award was developed to recognize an outstanding minor hockey coach. Herb Ebisuzaki is the Technical Director of Coaching for the Greater Toronto Hockey League, a position he has held since 1995. Herb is a retired schoolteacher and has played a leading role in championing further development of the Coaching Program in Canada and has been an outstanding ambassador for the GTHL. This award is presented in his name to recognize his hard work and dedication to the game, while representing the GTHL with dignity, class and honour.

The Award is presented by the Greater Toronto Hockey League to the GTHL Coach (Competitive, Select or House League) who best exemplifies the true spirit of coaching. This includes the capability to improve performance of an individual or team while ensuring each player's experience is a priority.
