J. Norman Sharp Midget “AA” Scholarship Award

About the Award

Established in 2005, the J. Norman Sharp Midget “AA” Scholarship Award was developed to recognize a Midget “AA” Player who achieves a high standard of excellence academically and in hockey. J. Norman Sharp was the President of the T.H.L (the predecessor of the GTHL) from 1954-56. Mr. Sharp joined the THL Board of Directors as the College Representative in 1940 and continued on the Board as a Director until he became 3rd V.P. in 1950. He served 2 years as 3rd Vice-President before being elected to 1st Vice-President in 1952. After his term as President from 1954-1956 he continued on as Treasurer for another 3 years.

The Greater Toronto Hockey League presents the Award annually to the Midget “AA” Player who achieves a high standard of excellence academically and in hockey. The Award is a one-time post secondary educational scholarship provided by the GTHL.
