

GTHL Players Rate High At The OHL Priority Selection

“Nine GTHL Graduates Selected In The First Round”

TORONTO (Tuesday, May 4, 2010) - The Ontario Hockey League conducted its 2010 Priority Selection on Saturday May 1, 2010 and the Greater Toronto Hockey League (GTHL) was well represented.

Scott Laughton of the Toronto Marlboros was selected 3rd overall by the Oshawa Generals. Scott joins an elite group of graduates that are selected early from the GTHL. Former GTHL graduates selected in the Priority Selection include Alan Quine, selected 2nd overall in the 2009 priority selection, John McFarland, selected 1st overall in the 2008 priority selection, Ryan O’Reilly, selected 1st overall in the 2007 priority selection, Alex Pietrangelo, selected 3rd overall in the 2006 priority selection and John Tavares, selected 1st overall in the 2005 priority selection.

The 301 players selected include 172 forwards, 97 defencemen, and 32 goaltenders. The Greater Toronto Hockey League led the way with 72 players selected including 16 from the Toronto Nationals. 175 players of the 301 selected competed at the 2010 OHL Cup, hosted by the GTHL.

“These players should be proud of their accomplishments. They have worked hard to get the recognition of being selected to take the next step in their hockey careers.” said GTHL President John Gardner. “This year was a special year for players from the GTHL. This was an elite group of players that participated in the Minor Midget “AAA” division.”

Attached is a listing of all the players from the GTHL chosen in the selection process.

The Greater Toronto Hockey League is the largest amateur hockey league in the world. There are over 40,000 youth registered annually with the GTHL.
